

Kevin has been my personal trainer now for 6 weeks. I have seen him twice a week during these six weeks. During my session, Kevin is quick to answer any of my questions that I have. While working out he is motivational, encouraging, and funny. He isn't just all about working out and not having fun, I have fun while I'm working out. He knows what he is talking about, and I realize this, since I see the results. He always makes me push out that last rep or even last two reps. He's always there to spot and never has any negative comments. It was great 6 weeks!!!! Thanks Kevin!!!
